My name is Jack. I am twelve years old and I have two brothers. One of my brothers is thirteen, his name is Bill. Bill and I go to the same school. Next year Bill will go to a different school. I have another brother, his name is Nick. Nick is older than Bill, he is twenty years old. Of course, Nick does not go to school, he has a job. He works at a very big newspaper, but he is not a journalist, he is a photographer. It is his job to take pictures for the newspaper.

Last Saturday, my brothers and I went to town. We didn't walk because the weather was very bad, it was raining and it was very windy. Nick drove father's car. In town we wanted to go to the cinema, there was a new film that I wanted to see. We bought tickets for the film. As I was going into the theatre, I saw a man. I knew that man, but I couldn't remember his name. I asked Nick; suddenly Nick was taking pictures of the man! "Who is he?" I asked again. "He's a famous actor," my brother said. I was surprised. We all went in to see the film. The next day my picture was in the newspaper; I was standing outside the theatre next to the actor. Nick is a great brother!
